RESULTS ARE SATISFYING

FIRST EXTRA DAY AT GRAVESEND MARKET BY PAYING PATRONAGE.

Alfred Noble Wins Most Pretentious Offering of the Card in Close Finish with The Squire and Question Mark.

New York, June 16.—Gravesend's first extra day of racing resulted satisfactorily, both from the standpoint of good sport and paying patronage. Perfect weather was an important contributing factor to this pleasing state of affairs. Scratching robbed the principal feature of the card, a handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, of much interest. Live Wire being one of the conspicuous absentees. The race developed one of the conspicuous absentees. The race developed in the corder named so closely aligned that the proverbial blanket would have covered all three. The winner was at all times the preferred horse in the betting, owing to a sensationally fast trial at Sheepshead Bay on Monday. The result was in doubt until the last stride, the favorite's final rusheing as electrical like in its swiftness as his jockey. J. Butler, was slow in making his bid for victory. Alfred Noble had the distinction of being acclaimed one of the best two-year-olds of his year, principally on the streets two-year-olds of his year. Principally on the streets of Garry Hermann had signally failed to live up to his easily acquired reputation. From a speculative viewpoint, today's results were probably unsatisfactory to the public and plunging contingent alike in that of the three favorites quoted at odds-on only one, Lad of Langden, proved profitable. Backers of Evening Song, which dead-heated the opening dash with Huda's Sister, lost money by the transaction, while Harrigan's defeat by Prince Gal spelled great loss to the big bettors, Although pronounced public choices, backers of Africa Noble and The Westler received na sensational unset with the success of the 15 to 1 Lucetta, wholly neglected in the betting. It had been a case of the east against the west. Cludy versus Dominica. Thousands of dollars were wagered on each. The back

ALFRED NOBLE POINTING FOR SUBURBAN.

New York, June 16.—Peter Wimmer is convinced that Alfred Noble will carry his speed over a condezable distance of ground, and is pointing the arry, Hermann gelding for the Suburban Handicap. Alfred Noble was a sore disappointment to Charles, Harrison last season. He had made better than iterily a fair reputation as a two-year-old, and Mitarrison had every reason the respective of the Alfred Noble was a fixed that the season of the s

MADDEN CHANGES OPINION OF FAYETTE.

New York, June 16.—John E. Madden now admits at he is greatly disappointed in his colt, Fayette, sit year the son of Ogden was rated not far behind stablemate. Sir Martin, and Madden refused yeral tempting offers for him. When the present isom opened Madden predicted that Fayette would the star of the three-year-old division and when colt ran second to King James in the Metropolitan to the Madden prediction of the three-year-old five words. the colt ran second to King James in the Metropolitan Handicap, it began to look as if his shrewd owner had spoken by the card. Fayette's defeats in the Withers and the Belmont were attributed by Madden to the heavy going. When the colt worked a brillant mile at Sheepshead Bay last week for the Carlton Stakes, the master of Hamburg Place was fibiliant. Still, over a fast track Fayette received another crushing defended is opinion that the Ogden colf would win the Suburban, while other turfmen reached the conclusion that Fayette had, for some unknown reason, degenerated into nothing more than a selling plater.

FRANK O'NEILL AGAIN IN THE SADDLE.

Riew York, June 16.—American turfmen were agreeably surprised to learn that Frank O'Neill had Idden W. K. Vanderbilt's Negofol to victory in the French Derby at Chantilly Sunday. O'Neill, once a crack jockey on the American turf, gave up the saddle several years ago because he could not make the required weights in this ones, the saddle several years ago because he could not make the required weights in this own that the particular to be with the properties of the weight of the saddle several years ago because he could not make they operated what was known as the B. & O. Stable, both here and at New Orleans. They were successful from the start and headed the list of winning owners at the Crescent City during two winter campaigns. As soon as the Hart-Agnew law was passed, though, Burlew and O'Neill sold their horses and were the first Americans to leave for France. But on the other side they encountered so meany obstacles that they soon parted company and O'Neill, able to make the prevailing high scale of weights, began riding again.

LAST OF BENNETT HORSES SOLD.

Cincinnati, O., June 16.—Miller & Henderson today purchased from George C. Bennett the only remaining horse of his once powerful stable—the two-year-old cott. Rokeby. The transfer of the colt marks the passing of the green and white diamonds, successfully carried to victory by famous horses on the leading tracks of this country.

ANOTHER EXTRA DAY IN PROSPECT.

New York. June 16.—It was reported today that there will be racing at Gravesend next Tuesday, which was an open date in the Brooklyn Jockey Club's schedule. This will make next week's program one of five racing days for New Yorkers, Friday being the only day with no racing scheduled if the report of Tuesday racing at Gravesend proves correct.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE GAZELLE STAKES

The Gazelle Stakes will be run for the twenty-third time this afternoon at Grayesend. #### SPIRITED RACING AT BLUE BONNETS.

Stellaland and S. S. R. Wake Showings That Arm Especially Disappointing.

Montreal, Que., June 16.—A steeplechase over the two-mile course and a race for province-bred borses were the attractions at Blue Bonnets this afternoon. The card was a good one and brought another large gathering to the beautiful track back of Mont Royal. Evenly balanced fields went to the post in most of the races and close finishes resulted. Compton and Crawford both wor their races by the smalest of margins after especially hard stretch drivels. Compton and Topsy Robinson were winning favorites.

lest of margins after especially hard stretch drives. Compton and Topsy Robinson were winning favorable track dried ont over night and the going was good, although not fast. The disappointments of the afternoon were S. S. B. and Stellaland. The latter's race was especially had in the light of disclever showing under Mokinany a few days previously. Helder had the monor this afternoon and at no stage of the trip was Stellaland a factor. He funds the showing under Mokinany a few days previously. Helder had the monor this afternoon and at no stage of the trip was Stellaland a factor. He funds finding him beaten off fifteen or twenty lengths. The winner turned up in Big Bear, the paddock tip among the smart set.

The race for province-bred horses, practically a renewal of the King's Plate, except that the distance was a mile instead of a mile and a quarter, was attended by an upset. On what they had shown in previous racing, S. S. B. looked much the best of bis field, and the big operators eagerly accepted odds-on about his chances. Victoria made nearly all the pace and won with ease from S. S. B. which managed to beat Okis out of the place.

When Busy was scratched from the second race the stewards ordered that Compton be coupled with Dallousie as the Clyde & Weston entry. This saved the favorite players from losing a wager, for Dallousie was the one most fancied of the pair.

Goldstein, who had been ill, signalized his return to the saddle by riding two winners. Compton and Topsy Robinson. The later except the canadian circuit this morning acquired the two-year-old, Autum Girl, from William Garth, and the mare, Jeanette M., from J. Gornelley. The pair were turned over to John Shields, who will be Mr. Carruthers trainer.

Albert E. Dyment, vice-president of the Canadian Breeding Bureau, was a visitor at Blue Bonnets this afternoon.

WOODBINE BOOKING CASES CONTINUED.

Toronto, Ont., June 16.—The cases of the bookmakers arrested at Woodbine have been continued until Monday next. Magistrate Kingsford has decided not to admit evidence concerning what the bookmakers pay for privileges at Woodbine, and the case of the prosecution was demoralized by this decision. In rendering his decision excluding evidence concerning the bookmakers' fees, the judge said: "I am trying Saunders, not the jockey club. It it was the elib that was on trial it would be necessary to know that, but it is not material in order to find out whether Saunders was committing a breach of the gambling act or not."

"Well, it's vital to my can adjournment to recast the staff inspector's case. The point is that if the bookmakers were assigned to any particular place, then a breach of the act was committed."

Attorney Robinette: "The only question as far as Saunders is concerned is whether he was allocated to any particular place, then a breach of the act was committed."

Attorney Robinette: "The only question as far as Saunders is concerned is whether he was allocated to any particular place, then a breach of the act was committed."

"Yes, that is my opinion on the question," responded Judge Kingsford.

"I think it would be just as well to adjourn all the other cases until called on, and then the other bookmakers need not be called at all, unless a conviction is secured against Saunders."

SIR MARTIN RUNS UNPLACED AT ASCOT.

London, Eng., June 16.—The Royal Hunt Cup was the chief feature of today's racing at Ascot Heath. Sir Martin, the American borse that ran as favorite in the Derby, was among the twenty-three startes, but he falled to get a place. Harry Payne Whitney's Perseus III., also ran unplaced. Summary of the race:

the race:
Ascot Royal Hunt Cup (handicap), plate of value of 300 sovereigns, with 1,500 sovereigns in specie added to a sweepstakes of 20 sovereigns each, for three-year-olds and upward; distance seven furlongs and 166 yards—

RACE-GOERS ON COAST TAKE HEART.

San Francisco. Cal., June 16.—Local lovers of racing are deriving considerable comfort from the report that Thomas H. Williams, president of the New California Jockey Club and mentor of the turf on the Pacific coast, has refused to allow the use of Oakland race track for an automobile meet, on the ground that he desires to keep the course in proper condition for the racing of horses, Mr. Williams is credited with the statement that he has completed definite plans for racing at Oakland next winter and that the jockey club will be able to carry them out.

BOOKMAKER BURTON DIES AT MEMPHIS.

Memphis. Tenn. June 16.—After a brief illness, Alfred Burton, at one time compatriot of Marcus Cartwright and other noted southern bookmakers, died here yesterday, aged sixty-seven. His fortune, at one time estimated to be millions, dwindled to $50,000 at his death.

WELL ON THE WAY TO REHABILITATION.

Restoration of Past Glories of Racing on Eastern Tracks in Sight.

New York, June 16.—With a fall schedule under consideration and each association adding to its racing time, racing may truly be said to be on a fair way to restoration of all its past glories, Horses are just as good as they ever were and the stakes are just as keenly contested. Some of the princely values have been cut considerably, but after all that is something that only affects a few of the big stables and it in no manner alters the nature of the contests.

is something that only anects a resolution stables and it in no manner alters the nature of the contests.

Each day the new order of things in the betting part of racing is being simplified, and that adjunct to the sport has now been regulated to a point where to the sport has now been regulated to a point where feeling secure in their rights to wager with one nother and keep well within the law. At Gravesend it has been shown conclusively that the associations themselves will punish offenders for the benefit of the sport itself, and they are better qualified to enforce the law than are officers who are not familiar with the racing crowds.

It is thoroughly realized and appreciated by the associations that a certain amount of betting is in the sport of the same realization of instructions that a certain amount of betting is in the sport of the offender. This is keeping the betting folk well in line, and just so long as the law is so interpreted and enforced, racing will prosper.

As betting is carried on now it is not unlike the the law is so interpreted and enforced, racing will prosper.

As betting is carried on now it is not unlike the English method in some of its workings and no reason exists for its not becoming just as popular and simple as the method on the other side of the Atlantic. What has been shown, and shown conclusively, this season, is that the betting is only an incident and that racing is still and always will be a sport that will attract for sport's sake.

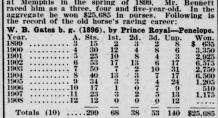

It is reported that after the Saratoga meeting, all of the New York tracks will schedule at least five racing days each week.

OLD CAMPAIGNER IS NO MORE

W. B. Gates, Veteran of 299 Races, Reported Killed on Pacific Coast.

Memphis, Tenn., June 16.—News has reached here of the death of the old horse, W. B. Gates, a racer that helped to lay the foundation for the fortune of George C. Bennett, the Memphis bookmaker, formerly or Mobile. Als. W. B. Gates is said to be a superstantial of the control of the control

W. B. Gates was widely credited with having won 100 races some few years ago, but as a matter of fact his record falls considerably short of that figure. It was a horse that was raced with great frequency for the stransfer from George C. Remeet and the specially after his transfer from George C. Remeet old to Captain R. R. Rice, of Arkansas, in whose colors he thereafter raced until the infirmities of age put an end to his usefulness for purse winning purposes. His last appearance under colors came last year, when he was twelve years old. He was a bay gelding by Prince Royal—Penelope, an English-bred mare by Shifnal—Polly Perkins, W. B. # TEXAS ANTI-RACING LAW TO BE TESTED, Dallas, Tex., June 16.—Preparations are being quietly made by prominent Texans who are interested in the welfare of the turf, to bring about a test in the courts of the Sloan anti-betting law which went into effect in this state last Saturday. Racing men have been advised that there is a good chance that the law will not stand the test. If the law fails to hold good, it is understood that there will be a reorganization of the racing associations and an attempt will be made to give the more populous Texas communities race meetings of higher class than heretofore.

ZIENAP RETURNS TO FORM

avorites Make Poor Showing and Layers Have Profitable Day-Foul Claimed Against Fireball Not Allowed.

Cincinnati, O., June 16.—The few venturesome layers who are accustomed to handle wagers of fair volume at Latonia reaped a harvest this afternoon through the defeat of four of the best backed favorites. A promising eard of evenls balanced contenders accounted for a good attendance and provided some spirited racing, but the failure of the public to land on winners sent them from the track in anything but a happy frame of mind.

W. F. Schulte's Zienap showed a return to good form in taking the handleap from Cymbal. Her victory, however, was flukey, inasmuch as jockey Walsh gave Cymbal a ride that would have put a novice to blush.

form in taking the handicap from Cymbal. Her victory, however, was flukey, inasmuch as lockey Walsh gave Cymbal a ride that would have put a novice to blush.

The purse race that preceded the handicap went to Plate Glass, a recent graduate from the maiden class. Only three started in the race and Plate Glass was at all times the choice. Marse Abe, however, had quite a following and he flattered his backers by leading for nearly three-quarters, but when it came to the test, he was wanting and Plate Glass downed him with seeming ease.

The chief surprise came with the running of the second race when Ada Meade, at a fancy price, came home in advance of Righteasy and Hyperion II. The latter was an overwhelming favorite, but, poorly ridden, was never a serious contender.

The sedwell connections are reputted to have made cantering victory in the fifth race over Toloridal Contents and the second race when have been a cantering victory in the fifth race over Toloridal Contents and the winner. The claim of foul lodged by jockey Powers against the winner was not allowed.

Deacon and J. Lee was the successful combination in the closing race, with Alma Boy second.

There is every prospect that the meeting herewill be extended until July 10, according to President Harvey Myers, who was a visitor at the track this afternoon. No official announcement to this effect has been issued, however.

Jockeys V. Powers, E. Martin and S. Page will leave for New York Sunday. Page, who has acquired an extensive following since his advent here, piloted the first three winners this afternoors will be continued to this horses tomorrow to Hamilton, where they will be rested until the opening of the meeting at that place.

Fred Luzuder condemplates shipping to Hamilton some time this week.

Robin Hood is slowly recovering from the effects of the foot spreading be sustained at Louisville. He will be turned out at C. E. Hamilton's farm until fall.

J. C. Ferriss, Jr., secured an attachment in the Kenton County Court this morning against Mellow

DUFFERIN PARK GIVEN ITS QUIETUS.

Government of Ontario Cancels Its Charter and Outlaw Meeting at Toronto Will End Forthwith.

Toronto, Ont., June 16.—The Ontario government this afternoon, on recommendation of the attorney-general, declared the charter of the York Riding and Driving Club canceled. The order will take effect tomorrow morning as soon as signed by the lieutentant-governor, and will have the effect of putting an immediate end to the outlaw meeting at Dufferin Park, the local half-mile track at which racing began last week. The promoter of the Dufferin Park meeting was A. M. Orpen and the management was in charge of Mark Boasberg, more widely known as Jack Sheehan.

WARFIELD TURNED OUT IN KENTUCKY.

Lexington, Ky., June 16.—Joseph H. Lesh's Warfield. W. J. Young's Fotsch and W. E. Applegate's Gilpy arrived bere this morning from Latonia to be turned out. Warfield has been lame ever since he raced for the Belmont Stakes, and it may be that he is hopelessly broken down. He was sent to Lexter Darnaby's farm. The other two, both of which are to be gelded, went to John D. Carr's farm.

Fifty yearling thoroughbreds left J. B. Hagrin's Elmendorf Farm this afternoon on special train for New York, from whence they will be shipped to England to be sold by auction. Several local young men accompanied the horses for the trip and experience, among them being G. D. Wilson, Jr., son of the owner of Iroquois Stud.

NO IMMEDIATE RACING FOR KING JAMES.

New York, June 16.—King James is in such condition that he will not race in the immediate future. S. C. Hildreth, his owner, said tonight that while the Brooklyn Handicap winner received galloping exercise every morning he will not be seen under colors until the Saratoga meeting, at best. Mr. Hildreth fears a recurrence of the foot trouble which kept King James in retirement during the which kept King James in retirement during the california season last winter. Therefore, nothing conditions to the condition of him either in private or public for at least a month. King James has recently been blistered several times, which would indicate that he had been suffering from some allment aside from the trouble that arose out of his Brooklyn Handicap mishap.

POLICE ROUT THE TOUTS AT VICTORIA.

Victoria, B. C.. June 16.—All objectionable characters, such as touts and hangers on around the race track, have their troubles at Victoria. As usual, a large army of these gentry put in an appearance on the opening day, but the provincial and city police soon rounded them up, threw them in jain over night and the next morning handed them a blue paper, put them on the boat and told them one and all never to set foot on British soil again,

LEXINGTON STAKE ENTRIES FILL WELL.

Lexington, Ky., June 16.—Entries closed last night for stakes to be run at the 1910 spring meeting of the Kentucky Association. Ten days' racing is provided for and the value of the stakes in the aggregate will amount to between $75,000 and $100,000, Many entries have been received, particularly from New York and castern horsemen. The largest stake is planned after the Saratoga Special.

COLIN REPORTED TO HAVE BROKEN DOWN.

New York, June 16.—Word was received from England today to the effect that J. R. Keene's famous unbeaten colt. Colin, has broken down in training and that it has been decided to ship him back to America to enter the stud.

SUBURBAN KEENE-HILDRETH DUEL

New York, June 16.—It is predicted by the work-watchers that neither King James nor Celt will be fit to start in the Suburban Handlean. The famous classic will probably introduced to the figured, to a duel between Messes, even on it is figured, to a duel between Messes, even on the figured to the same, as their respective representatives with the same, as their respective representatives. Historious and Fitz Herbert, Hilarious will carry 100 pounds, including a five-pound cenalty for winning the Carlton Stakes, while Fitz Herbert's impost is 105. Hidreth can start Joe Madden, 102, but Fltz Herbert is thought to be the better colt.

QUEBEC BREEDING INDUSTRY EXPANDING.

Montreal. Que.. June 16.—That racing at Blue Bounets is encouraging the improvement of the breed of herses in the Province of Quebec is evidenced by the increase in the number of theroughbred broodmares in this section of Canada. Last year there were less than half a dozen thoroughbred foals dropped in Quebec, while this spring thirty-five young thoroughbreds have been foaled at the different farms that have been established. P. T. Chinn announced yesterday that he would ship forty broodmares from Kentucky to Montreal this summer with the idea of disposing of the entire collection during the fall meeting at Blue Bonnets.

ENGLISH FILLY WINS BELGIAN DERBY.

The mile and a half Belgian Derby of $12,220 was run. for at Brussels Monday, June 1, a party of nine three-year-olds contesting it, and George Ashman's Walkyrie, starting at 9 to 2, won easily in G. Stern's hands by a length and a half from Mr., Gaston-preyfus' Drehance. The winner, bred by her owner, is a bay filly by Eager, out of Weathergall, by Gallinule, from Phoenomena, by Muncaster, and Mr. Ashman purchased Weathergall when carrying this filly at the Newmarket December sales of 1965 for $1,500.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The price at which Fred Luzader acquired jockey Kennedy's contract was $1,500. Work on the new track at Vancouver, B. C., has egun and is progressing rapidly.

Pat Dunne will ship his stable from Latonia to Canada in season for the opening of the Fort Erie meeting.

Jockey Conley was suspended at Dufferin Park Monday for persistently slashing at another rider with his whip.

Martin Nathanson, who served as presiding judge at the recently ended Houston meeting, has returned to Chicago from Texas.

Winners at a recent one-day meeting at Brandon. Man., included The Robin, Who Calls, Top and Bottom, Cosmopolitan and Minette.

Ballot finished a creditable fourth in the Trial Stakes, for which he was top weight, at Ascot Tnesday. He ran well for half the distance, but faltered towards the close.

H. G. Bedwell has had several offers for second call on jockey Taplin from eastern owners, but will wait until his arrival at New York before entering into any arrangement relative to the boy's services. Sallie of Navarre colt, which the American trainer, A. J. Joyner, saddled for the Whitsuntid-Plate at Manchester, is a magnificent type of two year-old, and for symmetrical make and shape and massiveness compares favorably with any Englishbred two-year-old that has been stripped this sea son. When he arrives at what his trainer woule call top-notch, he will hold his own.—London Sportsman.

Went to post at 3:28. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Lad of Langden, after forward and persistent inside pursuit of the pacemaker from the start, challenged on the stretch turn and outstayed Lord Stanhope in a long closing drive. The latter made the running for seven furlongs under a hard pull and fixed finally, was palpably short and is in rare form. Okenlie, trailing, but well up throughout, outstayed Killiecrankie for third place. The latter bomed up well on the stretch turn, but fixed finally. Sandpiper was in close pursuit for seven furlongs, but failed to stay. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
